FAQ

Logistics:

Q: I have accessibility needs; who do I connect with about ensuring I can fully participate?
A: Please consult this webpage for PennAccess Accessibility Info. If you have any additional accessibility needs, please email us at esg-i@wharton.upenn.edu.

Q: What time should I arrive?
A: Please aim to arrive no later than 8:30am for check-in and breakfast. The program will begin promptly at 9am.

Q: Will meals be served?
A: A full breakfast and lunch will be served both days. An off-campus dinner and reception will be held Friday evening at The Study at University City. More information regarding pre- and post-conference off-campus receptions will be announced as the event approaches.

Hotel:

Q: Where can I stay while visiting Philadelphia?
A: The Inn at Penn, The Sheraton Philadelphia University City, and The Study at University City are walking distance to Dinan Hall. We recommend booking your stay as soon as possible, as rooms may fill up closer to the event.

Transportation:

Q: I will be taking public transportation to campus. What is the best means of transport?
A: The closest trolley station lets off on 37th and Walnut Street, and the 40 bus line also stops at this intersection. Other bus lines stop in adjacent parts of campus. Additionally, there are numerous ride-sharing options in Philadelphia.

Q: I will be driving to campus. Where can I park?
A: Please consult this list of public parking garages near campus.

Q: I will be traveling directly from the train station/airport. How far is it to campus?

A: We are a 20-25 minute walk from Amtrak's 30th Street Station, and a 20-25 minute Taxi/Uber/Lyft from the Philadelphia airport.

Accessing Jon M. Huntsman Hall:

Q: Where do I enter the building?
A: On Friday, please plan to arrive at Huntsman Hall (3730 Walnut Street, Philadelphia, PA 19104) on the ground level on the Walnut Street entrance. You may need to show photo identification to the security guard there. Then take the escalator or elevator to the second floor. Meals will be served in room 265 and the programming will take place in the adjoining classroom, room 260.

On Saturday, please plan to enter on the Locust Walk side of the building. The Walnut Street entrance will be locked. You will need to show photo identification to the security guard at the desk at the Locust Walk entrance.

You may refer to the PennAccess Huntsman Hall Map here, and the Huntsman Hall floor plan here.

Q: Where are the closest restrooms in Jon M. Huntsman Hall?
A: Male and female restrooms are accessible on each floor of Huntsman Hall. All Gender restrooms are located in room F07. Please refer to this document for a map of all gender campus restrooms.

Accessing The Study at University City (for Friday night's reception and dinner):

Q: Where do I go for Friday night's reception and dinner?
A: The Study at University City is an 11 minute walk from Huntsman Hall, or a 3 minute cab ride. It is located at 20 S 33rd St, Philadelphia, PA 19104. The reception and dinner will be served in the Living Room.

Q: I have additional questions about on-campus spaces and resources. Where can I find these answers?
A: Please refer to this webpage for a list of campus maps and resources.
